

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C. May 15th, 1895.

F. N. Thompson Esq.,

Bookkeeper, U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:-

I reply to your letter of the 14th instant, I would state as to the time that Mr. Kretz and Mr. Morgan will enter upon duty, it was selected by them, and I supposed this was the understanding when they were in Philadelphia. I had a conference with both these gentlemen today and would suggest that a settlement be completed so that they may enter upon duty on the twenty-first instant.

If a settlement cannot be completed by that date, a postponement of the time will be considered. I have no wish to hurry this matter, but these gentlemen having been commissioned by the President are both anxious to enter upon duty.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 189

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
May 15, 1895

F.N. Thompson Esq.,
Bookkeeper, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:-

I reply to your letter of the 14th instant, I would state as to the time that Mr. Kretz and Mr. Morgan will enter upon duty, it was selected by them, and I supposed this was the understanding when they were in Philadelphia. I had a conference with both these gentlemen today and would suggest that a settlement be completed so that they may enter upon duty on the twenty-first instant.

If a settlement cannot be completed by that date, a postponement of the time will be considered. I have no wish to hurry this matter, but these gentlemen having been commissioned by the President are both anxious to enter upon duty.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Director of the Mint.